

McKINLEYISM IN CONGRESS.

THE PLAN TO SNEAK OUT OF THE FOUR ON THE ANTI-BOND BILL.

Friends of the Whigging Candidate Put the Republican Majority in the Cowardly
Position of Being Afraid to Go on Record
Against a Crazy Populist Measure.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Congress will adjourn on Monday or Tuesday next, and when Speaker Reed declares the session ended the Populist scheme of legislation, making it unlawful for the President to issue orders to issue bonds in case of a Treasury emergency, will be left unacted upon. The Republican party in the House of Representatives is split in two with regard to this typical specimen of Populist legislation, and the majority wing of the party dare not face the bill. The McKinleyites in the House are responsible for the fact that the Populist measure will not be repudiated and denounced by the Republican House of Representatives, and they have put the whole Republican party on the run. Today Chairman Dingley of the Ways and Means Committee made an adverse report upon the bill, as he was instructed to do by his committee, but when asked whether the bill would be brought to a vote or allowed to die with the session, he made no definite or satisfactory answer.

The truth is that Mr. Dingley cannot tell all the facts in the case without telling a tale of cowardice and treachery to the Republican associates in the House, who have more than once during the present session broken away from his control and from the authority of the Speaker. Speaker Reed is no party to the cowardly plan of running away from the bill, and he has more than once been rebuffed by the McKinleyites, who, representing the McKinley Presidential boom, and the Alliance Presidential boom, fear to go on record just at this time.

Speaker Reed is more than indignant at the action of the Republicans in the House. He is disgusted and disappointed, and his advocacy of a direct and decisive vote on the Populist bill is in sharp contrast with the policy of the McKinleyites and Alliance, who are the authors and supporters of the movement to sneak out of a vote upon the measure.

The Speaker and his friends in the House, backed up by the influence of the sound-money members of the Senate, are still earnestly at work to bring about an order of business that will permit the taking of a vote upon the bill, thus placing the Republican party on the Democratic party of the House on record, but it is the general opinion that their efforts will not avail.

The vote in the Ways and Means Committee on the question of reporting the bill adversely to the House is expected to be a close one, but what the record does not show is that Hopkins of Illinois, Grover of Ohio, Delivered of Iowa, and Johnson of North Dakota voted against the bill, and that the majority of the House voted for it.

Grover and Johnson are McKinleyites. Delivered is an Alliance, and Hopkins is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

THE PLAN TO SNEAK OUT OF THE FOUR ON THE ANTI-BOND BILL.

Friends of the Whigging Candidate Put the Republican Majority in the Cowardly Position of Being Afraid to Go on Record Against a Crazy Populist Measure.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Congress will adjourn on Monday or Tuesday next, and when Speaker Reed declares the session ended the Populist scheme of legislation, making it unlawful for the President to issue orders to issue bonds in case of a Treasury emergency, will be left unacted upon. The Republican party in the House of Representatives is split in two with regard to this typical specimen of Populist legislation, and the majority wing of the party dare not face the bill. The McKinleyites in the House are responsible for the fact that the Populist measure will not be repudiated and denounced by the Republican House of Representatives, and they have put the whole Republican party on the run. Today Chairman Dingley of the Ways and Means Committee made an adverse report upon the bill, as he was instructed to do by his committee, but when asked whether the bill would be brought to a vote or allowed to die with the session, he made no definite or satisfactory answer.

The truth is that Mr. Dingley cannot tell all the facts in the case without telling a tale of cowardice and treachery to the Republican associates in the House, who have more than once during the present session broken away from his control and from the authority of the Speaker. Speaker Reed is no party to the cowardly plan of running away from the bill, and he has more than once been rebuffed by the McKinleyites, who, representing the McKinley Presidential boom, and the Alliance Presidential boom, fear to go on record just at this time.

Speaker Reed is more than indignant at the action of the Republicans in the House. He is disgusted and disappointed, and his advocacy of a direct and decisive vote on the Populist bill is in sharp contrast with the policy of the McKinleyites and Alliance, who are the authors and supporters of the movement to sneak out of a vote upon the measure.

The Speaker and his friends in the House, backed up by the influence of the sound-money members of the Senate, are still earnestly at work to bring about an order of business that will permit the taking of a vote upon the bill, thus placing the Republican party on the Democratic party of the House on record, but it is the general opinion that their efforts will not avail.

The vote in the Ways and Means Committee on the question of reporting the bill adversely to the House is expected to be a close one, but what the record does not show is that Hopkins of Illinois, Grover of Ohio, Delivered of Iowa, and Johnson of North Dakota voted against the bill, and that the majority of the House voted for it.

Grover and Johnson are McKinleyites. Delivered is an Alliance, and Hopkins is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

The McKinleyites are at work upon another scheme now. They are booming Director-General Mark Hanna for the Chairmanship of the Republican Party, and they are working to get Hanna elected. Hanna is a candidate for the Speakership of the next House and hence one of the McKinleyites in his canvass for that office. These men were all frank to say that they and their Western colleagues did not desire to be identified with the necessity of going on record just at this time, and that they were not prepared to vote for the bill.

CITY DOCTORS ARRESTED.

HELD FOR TRIAL FOR STEALING ALMSHOUSE SUPPLIES.

Similar Thefts Going on for Years, and
Thousands of Dollars' Worth of Drugs
Stolen.—The Three Doctors Under Arrest
Considered What They Took Forfeit.

Three doctors belonging to the medical staff of the almshouse on Blackwell's Island were arrested yesterday afternoon on a warrant issued by Police Magistrate, charging them with stealing and appropriating to their own use drugs and supplies furnished to the almshouse by the city. A fourth doctor, whose name was included in the warrant, went to Canada several weeks ago. It is probable that, unless he returns, the charges against the three doctors will be dropped. The district attorney will ask that the three doctors be held for trial.

By the arrest of the three prisoners it is thought that a systematic stealing of supplies which is said to have been going on in the charity institutions of the city for several years will be brought to a termination. The three doctors were charged with the theft of thousands of dollars' worth of drugs and medicines paid for by the city and appropriated to the use of the doctors attached to the staffs serving on the island. Expensive drugs, bandages, and other supplies were stolen from the almshouse. The wardens of the city institutions have disappeared by wholesale. Reported investigation failed to account for the rapid disappearance of the articles in question until recently.

The latest investigation, which resulted in the arrest of the three doctors, was under the direction of Superintendent John W. Terry. The city almshouse, Mr. Terry succeeded Walter Roberts as the head of the almshouse last November. Having had ten or fifteen years' experience in the supervision of large institutions, and being familiar with the needs and requirements of the almshouse, he was able to detect the consumption of the drugs and medicine supplies furnished to the almshouse on his own account, which resulted in his becoming convinced that not more than half of the supplies furnished to the almshouse were being used for the benefit of the patients confined in the institution. Once on the right track the superintendent redoubled his efforts. Nurses and attendants called at times, and it didn't take Mr. Terry long to make certain discoveries.

The three doctors, who were graduates of the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, were charged with the theft of thousands of dollars' worth of drugs and medicines paid for by the city and appropriated to the use of the doctors attached to the staffs serving on the island. Expensive drugs, bandages, and other supplies were stolen from the almshouse. The wardens of the city institutions have disappeared by wholesale. Reported investigation failed to account for the rapid disappearance of the articles in question until recently.

The latest investigation, which resulted in the arrest of the three doctors, was under the direction of Superintendent John W. Terry. The city almshouse, Mr. Terry succeeded Walter Roberts as the head of the almshouse last November. Having had ten or fifteen years' experience in the supervision of large institutions, and being familiar with the needs and requirements of the almshouse, he was able to detect the consumption of the drugs and medicine supplies furnished to the almshouse on his own account, which resulted in his becoming convinced that not more than half of the supplies furnished to the almshouse were being used for the benefit of the patients confined in the institution. Once on the right track the superintendent redoubled his efforts. Nurses and attendants called at times, and it didn't take Mr. Terry long to make certain discoveries.

The three doctors, who were graduates of the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, were charged with the theft of thousands of dollars' worth of drugs and medicines paid for by the city and appropriated to the use of the doctors attached to the staffs serving on the island. Expensive drugs, bandages, and other supplies were stolen from the almshouse. The wardens of the city institutions have disappeared by wholesale. Reported investigation failed to account for the rapid disappearance of the articles in question until recently.

The latest investigation, which resulted in the arrest of the three doctors, was under the direction of Superintendent John W. Terry. The city almshouse, Mr. Terry succeeded Walter Roberts as the head of the almshouse last November. Having had ten or fifteen years' experience in the supervision of large institutions, and being familiar with the needs and requirements of the almshouse, he was able to detect the consumption of the drugs and medicine supplies furnished to the almshouse on his own account, which resulted in his becoming convinced that not more than half of the supplies furnished to the almshouse were being used for the benefit of the patients confined in the institution. Once on the right track the superintendent redoubled his efforts. Nurses and attendants called at times, and it didn't take Mr. Terry long to make certain discoveries.

The three doctors, who were graduates of the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, were charged with the theft of thousands of dollars' worth of drugs and medicines paid for by the city and appropriated to the use of the doctors attached to the staffs serving on the island. Expensive drugs, bandages, and other supplies were stolen from the almshouse. The wardens of the city institutions have disappeared by wholesale. Reported investigation failed to account for the rapid disappearance of the articles in question until recently.

The latest investigation, which resulted in the arrest of the three doctors, was under the direction of Superintendent John W. Terry. The city almshouse, Mr. Terry succeeded Walter Roberts as the head of the almshouse last November. Having had ten or fifteen years' experience in the supervision of large institutions, and being familiar with the needs and requirements of the almshouse, he was able to detect the consumption of the drugs and medicine supplies furnished to the almshouse on his own account, which resulted in his becoming convinced that not more than half of the supplies furnished to the almshouse were being used for the benefit of the patients confined in the institution. Once on the right track the superintendent redoubled his efforts. Nurses and attendants called at times, and it didn't take Mr. Terry long to make certain discoveries.

The three doctors, who were graduates of the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, were charged with the theft of thousands of dollars' worth of drugs and medicines paid for by the city and appropriated to the use of the doctors attached to the staffs serving on the island. Expensive drugs, bandages, and other supplies were stolen from the almshouse. The wardens of the city institutions have disappeared by wholesale. Reported investigation failed to account for the rapid disappearance of the articles in question until recently.

The latest investigation, which resulted in the arrest of the three doctors, was under the direction of Superintendent John W. Terry. The city almshouse, Mr. Terry succeeded Walter Roberts as the head of the almshouse last November. Having had ten or fifteen years' experience in the supervision of large institutions, and being familiar with the needs and requirements of the almshouse, he was able to detect the consumption of the drugs and medicine supplies furnished to the almshouse on his own account, which resulted in his becoming convinced that not more than half of the supplies furnished to the almshouse were being used for the benefit of the patients confined in the institution. Once on the right track the superintendent redoubled his efforts. Nurses and attendants called at times, and it didn't take Mr. Terry long to make certain discoveries.

The three doctors, who were graduates of the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania, were charged with the theft of thousands of dollars' worth of drugs and medicines paid for by the city and appropriated to the use of the doctors attached to the staffs serving on the island. Expensive drugs, bandages, and other supplies were stolen from the almshouse. The wardens of the city institutions have disappeared by wholesale. Reported investigation failed to account for the rapid disappearance of the articles in question until recently.

The latest investigation, which resulted in the arrest of the three doctors, was under the direction of Superintendent John W. Terry. The city almshouse, Mr. Terry succeeded Walter Roberts as the head of the almshouse last November. Having had ten or fifteen years' experience in the supervision of large institutions, and being familiar with the needs and requirements of the almshouse, he was able to detect the consumption of the drugs and medicine supplies furnished to the almshouse on his own account, which resulted in his becoming convinced that not more than half of the supplies furnished to the almshouse were being used for the benefit of the patients confined in the institution. Once on the right track the superintendent redoubled his efforts. Nurses and attendants called at times, and it didn't take Mr. Terry long to make certain discoveries.

OUR RIGHTS IN MADAGASCAR.

Manotoux Says We Admit the Old Treaties Have Lapsed.

PARIS, June 5.—M. Manotoux, Minister of Foreign Affairs, in addressing the committee on the Madagascar bill to-day, showed that the attitude of the United States and Great Britain, in not allowing that the precarious and ambiguous régime imposed by M. Bourgeois amounted to annexation, had led to the submitting of the present bill.

The attitude of the present Government already had good results, inasmuch as an entirely favorable reply had been received from the United States admitting that all the old treaties between France and Madagascar were still in force.

London, June 5.—In the Commons Sir Charles Dilke to-day asked if Her Majesty's Government and the Government of the United States would give their assent to the view that the mere conversion of the island of Madagascar from French protectorate to a French colony put an end to commercial and other engagements between Great Britain and the United States and Madagascar.

George N. Curzon, Parliamentary Secretary to the Foreign Office, replied that Great Britain would give no consideration to the question. "We are not in a position to say whether the Government of the United States," he added, "since the annexation of Madagascar by France."

Thomas G. Howell, Conservative, asked if the Government would communicate with the Government of the United States in regard to the question of the United States in regard to the annexation of that island by France.

Mr. Curzon replied: "I think it unlikely that we shall be seen in possession of the views of the United States Government upon the subject."

MAYOR WILL TRY PARKER.

Neglect of Duty and Obstructive Business Said to Be the Accusations.

Charges and imputations are being drawn up for the city clerk, Mr. Charles H. Parker, in a proceeding before the Mayor for his removal. The Council to the Corporation, Francis M. Scott, has the matter in charge, and will probably have the papers ready to serve on Mr. Parker next Monday. President Roosevelt, who is in the city, is said to be interested in the case. Mr. Parker's colleagues, however, are insisting with data, and in other ways in the preparation of the papers.

The principal charge against Commissioner Parker is said to be neglect of duty, with certain specifications, chiefly failure to attend to the duties of his office, and thus blocking the business of the department.

At the meeting of the Police Board last Wednesday, President Roosevelt mentioned the case of a policeman who paid $200 to someone to obtain his appointment. The policeman in question is Charles H. Parker, who is now in the city. The Police Board is said to be interested in the case. Mr. Parker's colleagues, however, are insisting with data, and in other ways in the preparation of the papers.

The principal charge against Commissioner Parker is said to be neglect of duty, with certain specifications, chiefly failure to attend to the duties of his office, and thus blocking the business of the department.

At the meeting of the Police Board last Wednesday, President Roosevelt mentioned the case of a policeman who paid $200 to someone to obtain his appointment. The policeman in question is Charles H. Parker, who is now in the city. The Police Board is said to be interested in the case. Mr. Parker's colleagues, however, are insisting with data, and in other ways in the preparation of the papers.

The principal charge against Commissioner Parker is said to be neglect of duty, with certain specifications, chiefly failure to attend to the duties of his office, and thus blocking the business of the department.

At the meeting of the Police Board last Wednesday, President Roosevelt mentioned the case of a policeman who paid $200 to someone to obtain his appointment. The policeman in question is Charles H. Parker, who is now in the city. The Police Board is said to be interested in the case. Mr. Parker's colleagues, however, are insisting with data, and in other ways in the preparation of the papers.

The principal charge against Commissioner Parker is said to be neglect of duty, with certain specifications, chiefly failure to attend to the duties of his office, and thus blocking the business of the department.

At the meeting of the Police Board last Wednesday, President Roosevelt mentioned the case of a policeman who paid $200 to someone to obtain his appointment. The policeman in question is Charles H. Parker, who is now in the city. The Police Board is said to be interested in the case. Mr. Parker's colleagues, however, are insisting with data, and in other ways in the preparation of the papers.

The principal charge against Commissioner Parker is said to be neglect of duty, with certain specifications, chiefly failure to attend to the duties of his office, and thus blocking the business of the department.

ST. PAUL, RECORD BREAKER.

CUTS DOWN TIME FROM SOUTHAMPTON NEARLY TWO HOURS.

Come the Long Route in 6 Days 5 Hours
10 Minutes.—Doing an Average of 20.40
Miles a Day.—The Record Made by the American Line's "Great Eastern."

After a voyage of almost unexampled serenity, the American liner St. Paul, fastened exclusively by Yankee genius, created yesterday a new record between Southampton and New York, covering 3,113.7 nautical miles in 6 days 5 hours and 32 minutes, and thus beating the time of the New York in 6 days 7 hours and 14 minutes by one hour and forty-two minutes. The average hourly speed of the St. Paul was 20.40 knots, which is better by .12 of a knot than the record of the Paris in 1894, and 24 minutes over the record of the Queenstown route, in October, 1892, when she flew the British flag. Since then the Queenstown record has been out down to 5 days, 7 hours, and 23 minutes by the Cunarder Luviana, equipped with 30,000 horse power and burning 540 tons of coal a day.

The St. Paul has a horse power by about 10,000 tons the Luviana and Campana, and she consumes only about 310 tons of coal a day, which means that on a voyage of six days the great Cunarders send about $4,000 more in blumious vapor through their funnels than the St. Paul.

There was hardly a ripple of excitement aboard the St. Paul when she clove the placid waters of the Atlantic. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The ship was a summer sea steamer of the red lightship of Sandy Hook at 2:07 o